A. P. HILL CAMP INVITED TO TROY

G. A. R. Post Wants to Entertain Confederate Veterans.

REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Election for Municipal Officers in Petersburg Will Be Held To-Day.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., June 13.

Commander Geo. G. Bernard, of A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans, to-day received a letter from J. M. Snyder, post commander of the Department of New York, Grand Army of the itepublic, extending the camp a very cordial invitation to visit Troy. N. Y., on their way going or coming from Springfield, Mass. Commander Snyder says that:

"At a meeting of Wm. B. Tibbit's Post, G. A. R., of Troy, N. Y., held Monday evening, June 6, I was appointed a committee of one to solicit that the A. P. Hill Confederate Veterans Camp, on their way, going or coming, to stop over at Troy, N. Y., a day, or the time your camp can afford to give us. If it is possible for you comply with the wishes of Post Fibbit's, I can assure you of their heasure to entertain the camp, and a Mospitable and a fraternal welcome by bot only the comrades but the citizens of Troy. Sincerely hoping you can so errange your itinerary as to give us the extreme pleasure of entertaining you, I am "Sincerely and fraternally yours,"

Sincerely and fraternally yours, "J. M. SNYDER." This invitation is very gratifying to be veterans of A. P. Hill Camp, and ill be duly considered by them.

Alumn's Hig Meeting.

Meeting last sight in the auditorium of the John Marshall High School, members of the Alumni Association of that institution, representing classes of the years from 1875 to 1919, formed anew their bond of affection for their alma mater. No more interesting or pleasing event has characterized the High School finals. Sixty pretty girls who compose the High School chorus, occupied the greater portion of the stage, while in front were seated the speakers and members of the faculty. In a brief address, in the course of which he spoke of the days when he was a pupil of the School, S. T. Beveridge, class of 75, president of the association, opened the exercises. Numbers by the several musical organizations of the school followed, and week heartly applauded. In retrospective modd, J. T. Bilord, class '92, spoke of the growth of the institution in the past, its development and improvement, and, in turn, Alvin B. Hutzler, class '94, pictured convincingly its glorious future.

One of the most pleasing features of the evening was the roll call of graduating classes he Mrs. C. G. Burton, class '82, As she called the years beginning with 1875, the members of the respective classes stood up until, when she had reached the present year, but few remained scated. Mrs. Burton raid a tribute to Principal James C. Harwood, as did the other speakers, whe also eulogized William F. Fox William A. Bowles, Julian P. Thomas and other past instructors of the High School.
